This Addendum forms a part of the contract documents and modifies the original ITB documents as noted below:

The following question was posed of the aforementioned ITB:

Question 1:

Can you confirm the D375 device listed on the current inventory of equipment supported by the existing contract with AT&T?

Answer 1:

The device identified as the Samsung D375, Quantity 55, in SECTION 11, Pricing Forms, Item B. Licensing Support and Supplies, on page 78 of the ITB is incorrect. The correct description for that device is the Samsung Model D357.
