Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System

GUIDELINES FOR BRAND INTEGRITY

Brand identity is the way in which the vision of a brand is communicated. It encompasses the visual style, language and the tone of all communications, both internal and external. A consistent brand identity reinforces key associations with the Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System and constantly works to build an impression of what the AFPLS brand represents.

Correct Usage | Logomark

atlanta-fulton public library system

Two spot colors | CMYK | RGB

Use this logo for two color printing, full color printing or color printing to ink-jet, Fiery, or large format output printers. Do Not substitute these colors when full color output is desired.

Reverse to White

Use when printing on a black or highly contrasting background so the white of the paper show through

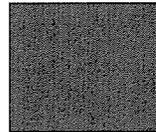

atlanta-fulton public library system

Black and White

Use this logo for black and white printing only or when a black logo works best in a full color design format.

Color Considerations

PMS=294
CMYK=100.52.0.21
RGB=0.85.150

PMS=369
CMYK=59.0.100.63
RGB=109.179.63

PMS (Pantone Matching System)
Use for SPOT printing or when only two colors are used for commercial printing.

CMYK-Full Color Printing
Use this color formula when full color is used for commercial printing.

RGB-Digital Screen representation
Use this color formula when full color is used for commercial printing.

Black/Grayscale
Use this color when only black is used for commercial printing.

Correct Usage | Logomark with Tagline

Take your dreams off the shelf.™

As an unregistered trademark the use of a small TM in relation to the tagline provides a degree of legal protection as intellectual property.

The Tagline

A tagline is not a strategy. It is an emotion, an idea, an inspiration. It helps patrons form an emotional connection with the brand. Use the tagline with the logomark with discretion. Overuse of the tagline tends to dilute its impact.

Brand Essence

The essence of a brand is distinctly different from a company or product tagline. The brand essence is focused internally and is used to energize employees and provide decision-making criteria. In contrast, a tagline is used to communicate a brand association with an external audience.

Incorrect Usage | Logomark

Do NOT change the brand colors

atlanta-fulton public library system

Do NOT condense the logo

atlanta-fulton public library system

Do NOT stretch the logo

atlanta-fulton public library system

Fonts

The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System's logotypes are Avenir, a modern sans serif font and New Times Roman, a classic serif font. The unconventional use of all lowercase for the logotype suggests a modern, humanistic approach. However, in body copy, the library name should employ conventional upper and lower case characters.

A sans serif font for text in body copy is recommended to promote a contemporary, progressive look and feel in library promotions and communications. If Avenir is unavailable, the most common sans serif fonts are Helvetica and Arial. Times Roman is a readily available font. Remember, consistency is the key to building brand equity!

Final Notes

The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System's logo is a stand-alone visual representation of the library—in effect, your signature. It is a combination of the logotype and the "public" and "open book" icons. These elements should never be separated. The Atlanta-Fulton Public Library System name should always be used in full. To preserve the integrity of the signature, the logo should always be surrounded by a certain amount of clear space. This separates the logo from other elements which might detract from its legibility.
