

FULTON COUNTY CLUBHOUSE FOR YOUTH

1480 Delowe Drive, Atlanta, Ga 30311

The Clubhouse for Youth is a place where teens (ages 14-17) can spend their out of school time learning the tools to keep them safe and drug free. It is located in a neighborhood setting that fosters pride in community.

Services are offered in a group setting and include substance abuse prevention education, behavioral health psycho-education, life skills, and daily living skills (cooking, budgeting).

- Activities include: sports, video games, pool table, foosball, and other activities to encourage and develop healthy interests other than substance use. Youth have access to a computer lab, homework assistance (tutors), GED/college preparation, and customized employment preparation. Parents are welcome to participate in field trips, community service projects and monthly family dinners.

Other services include:

- Youth/Peer/Family led group activities
- Upon completion of the program, participants are encouraged to share their experiences with their peers through Positive Peer Mentoring.
- Education groups for parents
- Technology Reaches Youth (TRY) - a program designed for youth to express themselves through media (photography, video production, music, etc.)
