

Gender Equality Team

This group was established in 2007 to explore and address issues of gender equality within Fulton County Government, including careers and business opportunities and service delivery. While women and men have the same rights under the law, there are still areas where women – and men – are sometimes underserved. This group of employees has collected and analyzed budgetary and programmatic data to determine how Fulton County Government can more equitably serve men and women, boys and girls.