

James McDonald, Appraisal Manager, Standard Division, Special Properties Section

Mr. McDonald has been employed with Fulton County Board of Assessors for over 28 years. He has worked as a Personal Property Appraiser, Personal Property Auditor, Audit Manager and for the past 5 years Real Property Special Properties Manager.

His current duties involve the review of requests for special assessment program such Current Use Assessment, preferential Historic assessments and Exemption.

He holds an Appraiser IV Certification from the Georgia Department of Revenue.

James is a single father living in Norcross with his 17 year old daughter, 4 dogs, 2 cats, and 5 fish.