I'M A COLLABORATION FIRST OVER COMPETITION

MISSION

The mission of I'm A Father F1rst, Inc. is to promote individual and collective success for fathers relative to mentorship, brotherhood, and access to opportunities to empower, enhance, enrich and improve their chances of being better fathers.

Meals of Love is a food program born from the increased need during the COVID-19 Pandemic in 2020.

- Over 250,000 chef prepared meals were delivered to students in Atlanta Public Schools
- Over 10,000 meals provided to Atlanta's seniors in assisted living centers
- Over 225,00 meals from April 2020 -November 2020

VISION

The vision of I'm A Father F1rst, Inc. is to connect resources with critical community needs in an authentic effort to changes lives and eradicate socioeconomic barriers in underserved and underrepresented communities.

REBRAND THE MAN

Rebrand the Man is an initiative where we highlight successful men and good fathers in the community so the youth can be mentored and see the process of how to think, live, and be successful. Over 2500 men have mentored, clothed and trained, with the ambition of building more productive, active men and fathers in our communities.

I'm A Father F1rst launched a crypto learning initiative called "Crypto Camps" on December 18, 2021 with the goal of educating the youth in the community on the basics of investing in cryptocurrency, such as Bitcoin, Ethereum, and other digital investments.

PROJECT

To date, 150 youth in the city of Atlanta have been trained and mentored in cryptocurrency investing and jobs in the industry.

Over $5000 in Ethereum, has been donated to attendees. We continue to educate our city's youth at Andrew and Walter Young Historic YMCA.

Project 79 is our summer workforce development program for teens held during the 79 days they're out of school.

Teens can choose from the following opportunities:

- Workforce
- Training
- Placement

Participants in King Talk workshops will receive the tools needed to navigate successfully in schools and in society.

Each Tenet teaches a valuable characteristic needed to develop manhood, transform the mindset, and provide an internal compass to achieve life goals.

facebook.com/imafatherf1rst

