NOTES

Overview

The Land Division is part of the Fulton County Department of Real Estate and Asset Management. For purposes of this tutorial, the Land Division is the Owner of the County's surplus properties and, as in the "For Sale by Owner" model that real estate agents are well familiar with, we market our own properties.

- The official source of information for any and every property being offered for sale to the public is the Invitation for Sale by Sealed Bid, which we call by its nick name-- the BID PACKAGE. It is a product of the Fulton County Purchasing Department.
- When the County is in an active sale period, a BID PACKAGE is accessible for each property being offered via <https://www.bidnetdirect.com/georgia/fultoncounty>.
- Your buyer is called a Bidder and he/she/they must be registered as a Fulton County Vendor in order to access the Bid Package.
- There is a Solicitation Number associated with each property that is offered for sale.
- The primary marketing vehicle is the Fulton County web site. You can access information on the public sale process via www.fultoncountyga.gov/realestateforsale.
- The bid process is, for the most part, conducted electronically. Bid documents are distributed via BidNet Direct. Bids (including a copy of the Earnest Money check) are uploaded to BidNet Direct. Bid Openings are conducted via Zoom.
- Earnest Money must be delivered to the Purchasing Department within five (5) business days of the Bid Opening.
- An announcement will be made when the County initiates an offer of one or more properties for sale to the public. There are three ways that you may be notified:
 1. An ad placed in the Daily Report or other publication of wide circulation in Fulton County

2. Bid Packages posted on BidNet Direct
3. An e-blast sent out to agents and other individuals who have expressed an interest in buying Fulton County's surplus real estate.

As active real estate agents, you can help the Land Division reach qualified buyers. We encourage you to promote our properties and we welcome your participation in the public sale process.

Typically, we will pay a commission of 5% of the sale price at closing to the brokerage representing the buyer. You should consult the Bid Package as it is the definitive source of information regarding real estate commissions and any requirements relating to representation.

Earning a commission from the County could be some of the easiest money you'll ever earn. We have worked hard to simplify the BID PACKAGE and to provide this tutorial to make this a financially worthwhile experience for you.

Both Fulton County and your client are relying on you to understand the public sales process. When there is an active sale in progress, and after you have completed this Tutorial, your starting point is to carefully read the BID PACKAGE and all information and downloads available on the web site.

What is expected of the Buyer's Agent?

- Knowledge of Fulton County policies and procedures that govern the sale of publicly owned real estate.
- Presentation of our properties to qualified Buyers exactly as you do for properties that are listed by other property owners in the multiple listing services.
- Ability to complete a Bid Package accurately and fully and to submit it timely.
- Assistance to your clients, facilitating the sales process in their best interests.

How to Bid

Here is a short list of things you need to know:

- A. There is a BID PACKAGE for each property offered for sale.
- B. The Bidder may be an individual or an entity. For purposes of completing the BidNet submission, the Bidder is the Buyer. The Bidder is also identified as the Vendor who is registered in BidNet Direct. Note that the Real Estate Agent is not the Bidder or the Buyer or the Vendor.
- C. Properties are sold “as is where is with all faults”.
- D. When there is an earnest money requirement, a copy of the check must accompany the bid that is uploaded to www.bidnetdirect.com/georgia/fultoncounty and the actual check must be delivered by mail to the Purchasing Department within five (5) business days of the date of Bid Opening.
- E. The Successful Bidder pays all closing costs.
- F. There is no provision for “due diligence” so inspections must be completed before the bid opening. See the BID PACKAGE for details relating to inspection of improved properties.
- G. All transactions are for cash.

The official source of information is the BID PACKAGE.

NOTE: Bidders must first register as Vendors of Fulton County to gain access to Solicitations on Bid Net Direct.

- H. To register, click on Business Services on the Fulton County web site home page; then, Become a Vendor under Doing Business with FC; then click on BIDNET in the middle of the page. Select the “Limited” block; then select Georgia as your state. Follow the prompts to complete personal information for the Bidder.
- I. You will find that a “company name” is required. It can be anything of your choosing.
- J. Be sure to move the toggle to eliminate the fee of $64.95 which is for services that your buyer will not need.

The primary marketing vehicle is the Fulton County web site, www.fultoncountyga.gov/realestateforsale which provides detailed information on the properties being offer for sale.

Alternatively, to navigate our web site from the home page at www.fultoncountyga.gov, use the search icon and type in Surplus Real Estate for Sale.

- A. Going through the SURPLUS REAL ESTATE FOR SALE link gives you access to FAQs, the property’s Title Certificate (if available), and other information beyond what you will find within the Bid Package.

- B. Read, scroll, and follow the links to the property you are interested in. A link to the BID PACKAGE is accessible via the link at the bottom of the property information page for each property.

- The Land Administrator will direct the Closing Attorney to coordinate with the Successful Bidder all matters relating to the closing, including time and date of the closing and the type and amount of funds to be collected at the closing.

16. County's Rights upon Failure of Successful Bidder to Close.

- If for any reason the Successful Bidder fails to close within 30 days of the Notice of Award, such failure may be construed as a refusal to pay the consideration due the County under the terms of the Real Estate Sales Contract and Invitation for Sale by Sealed Bid. The County may retain the earnest money deposit and possibly pursue its right for specific performance.

17. Successful Bidder's Rights upon Failure of County to Close.

- Subject to the County's rights to reject any and all bids, the County shall tender a duly executed Quit Claim deed conveying the land or interest in real property offered by it for sale within 120 days after Notice of Award to the Successful Bidder. Failure by the County to close and deliver such Quit Claim Deed within the 120-day period shall entitle the Successful Bidder to refuse to close the transaction. The County would then be required to return the Earnest Money to the Successful Bidder. Neither the County nor the Successful Bidder will be liable to any party in any respect as a result of such refusal to close the transaction under this circumstance.

Q: Do you sell any properties for $1?

A: According to State law and the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners, the price of each property is based on its fair market value, which is determined by a qualified appraisal. We would only sell a property for $1 if its appraisal came back at $1.

Q: Will I have time to arrange financing if I want to make a purchase?

A: All sales must be cash to the Seller (the County). Any financing must be done prior to the closing and not depend on the County as an active participant in the lending process. Keep in mind that the County's policy requires the Buyer to close within 30 days of the Notice of Award. A mortgage commitment is not sufficient to qualify a bid as RESPONSIVE.

Q: How often do you schedule your sales?

A: Sales are scheduled once properties have been declared surplus by the Board of Commissioners. There is no schedule. A sale may occur once or twice a year or more or less frequently.

Q: What is the starting bid amount? What is the minimum bid?

A: Generally, the County does not publish a starting bid amount or a minimum bid; however, you will find a copy of the current appraisal for each property, appended to the Invitation for Sale by Sealed Bid. The County expects that the buyer's representative will assist the buyer in setting the amount of his/her bid based on his/her opinion of its fair market value.

Q: Do you have any houses for sale?

A: Whereas we may have a house for sale from time to time, most of the real estate that the County owns is commercial or institutional or vacant land. However, the inventory of available surplus properties for sale continues to change. You are encouraged to check the web site to see when a sale is scheduled and what new properties may be available.

Q: Do you donate properties to non-profit organizations? If not, is there a discount for non-profit organizations?

A: No. The County is prohibited from granting any donation or gratuity regardless of the worthiness of the purpose or the recipient. Where the public receives no substantial benefit in return, the donation or free use of county-owned property would violate this constitutional prohibition.

According to State law and the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners, the price of each property is based on its fair market value, which is determined by a qualified appraisal. Neither State Law nor County policy sets out an exception for non-profit buyers.

Q: Can I give my property in exchange for one you have for sale?

A: No. Neither State law nor the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners allow for the exchange of real property.

Q: Do you give tax incentives or tax breaks if I buy your property?

A: The State law on the disposition of county-owned real estate does not address tax incentives or tax breaks. The Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners does not provide for either tax incentives or tax breaks. You are encouraged to consult a CPA or attorney for tax advice.

Q: Do you pay closing costs?

A: No. All closing costs must be paid at the closing table by the Buyer.

Q: Do you pay real estate commissions?

A: We may. Under the current Real Property Disposition Policy of Fulton County, approved by the Board of Commissioners on August 1, 2012, the Land Administrator is empowered to list a property with a Georgia state-licensed real estate brokerage and pay a commission at closing. Or the County may pay a real estate commission to the Buyer's Agent. Any decision regarding the payment of a commission will always be included in the Bid Package and marketing materials for each property offered for sale.

Under certain circumstances, the County may choose to engage an auctioneer to offer surplus properties to the public and pay certain costs of sale that may include a commission.

Q: How do you decide which properties are placed on the market for sale?

A: There is a process prescribed by the County's Real Property Disposition Policy. It requires the Land Administrator to assess a property's current use and any plans for its possible future use and to conduct other due diligence research related to the property. In cases where the Land Administrator, supported by the County Manager, determines that it makes sense to dispose of the property, a recommendation is then made to the Board of Commissioners to declare the property surplus. Only if the recommendation is approved by the Board of Commissioners would the Land Division proceed to sell the property. The property would then be offered to the public via sealed bid or public auction, according to State law and the County's Real Property Disposition Policy.

Q: Can I do a lease purchase?

A: No. Currently the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners does not provide for us to finance a sale using a lease purchase arrangement.

Q: Can I view the properties online?

A: Yes and no. We have made an effort to provide as much information as possible on the Fulton County web site, including a photograph of each property. Still, you are encouraged to make a site visit to each property for yourself. For properties that have locked structures or that are gated, the Land Division may conduct an “Open House” where a staff person will meet the public at the property for an inspection opportunity. The date and time of the Open House will be provided in the Bid Package for each property offered for sale.

Under certain circumstances, the County may decline to open a property for inspection.

Q: What are the required steps for purchasing a County owned property?

A: So glad you asked! Unlike the purchase and sale of real property in the private sector, governments are regulated by State law and local policies regarding the disposition of publicly owned real property. By law in the State of Georgia, we are permitted directed to sell surplus real property by sealed bid or auction. There is a specific set of rules that govern how the real estate is offered and how you must present your offer. This information is provided in the Bid Package.

Q: Are nonprofit organizations given a preference when purchasing a property?

A: No. According to State law and the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners, the price of each property is based on its fair market value, which is determined by appraisal. Neither State Law nor County policy set out an exception that would give non-profit buyers a preference of any kind.

Q: Do County employees receive a discount?

A: No. According to Georgia State law and the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners, there is no provision for selling property at a discount to employees of the County.

Q: Will the County make repairs?

A: That’s a good question: No. According to the Real Property Disposition Policy of the Fulton County Board of Commissioners, County-owned real property is sold “as-is”, “where-is”, and “with all faults” and transferred by QUITCLAIM DEED only.

Q: I understand that sometimes you may require the Buyer to be represented by a real estate broker. Why?

A: The real estate market is ever-changing. It can be very exciting and also very challenging. We have learned from experience that in the sale of surplus, distressed, and other government-owned real estate where Buyer and Seller alike are required to adhere to a unique set of rules, regulations, and policies, it is prudent that each party have professional representation in order that their interests may reliably be represented.
