Mr. Selby referenced the comment made regarding an event in South Fulton and assertions regarding Final Disclosure Policy

Chair Allen responded that a letter to the host of the event (Mayor of South Fulton and Council Member) reminding them of the election code that refrains campaigning within 150 feet of voting location.

Mr. Selby explained that he works with the publication in Fulton and its many days in advance of publication. The legal organ on publishes once a week on Wednesday.

Ms. Adams suggested calling the TSPLOST to avoid any delays.

Mr. Selby agreed with Ms. Adams and suggested that there was a case that supported that action.

Attorney Pachuta explained that there was a Trial case in 1992 (lower court) attempting to invalidate the election; however, the Supreme Court ruled that calling the election was considered a perfunctory duty. She suggested best practice is to wait for all the resolutions to be completed.

Mr. Selby surmised that the official act is based on the publication of the Call.

Attorney Pachuta provided the BRE the definition of the Call:
§ O.C.G.A. § 21-2-2 (3)

Chair Allen inquired about the outreach dates.

Director Williams explained that there are 4 outreach locations and the AV Team will be onsite for 3 days at each location.

Mrs. Crawford inquired about drop box locations.

Director Williams answered yes, there are 7 drop boxes in the same previous locations this year and she announced the locations. The drop box locations are listed in the far-right column.

Mr. Selby asked was there a specific number of AV locations the DRE was targeting.

Director Williams explained that the DRE was budgeted for 37 AV locations based on the type of election and turn-out. She explained that the DRE was unable to secure that number for various reasons.

Director Williams outlined the drivers:

- Equal distribution throughout the county
- Potential voter Turn-out
- The type of election

Mr. Selby asked why was #3 (Big Bethel) being removed from the list.

Director Williams explained per the election code all private facilities are required to be an Election Day (ED) location to qualify as an AV location. The DRE did not have adequate time to complete the required survey of the facility. Requirement for AV locations:

- Government building
- or an established ED location

Ms. Adams inquired about the outreach locations and the BRE receiving the cost to conduct these outreach locations.

Director Williams explained that there's only one team working for the outreach locations. Madam Director explained the only cost will be personnel hours.

Ms. Adams answered yes and the couriers' hours as well. She asked did the DRE created a COC form to complete due to moving this equipment around. Director Williams explained that we utilize the standard form.

Ms. Adams asked for clarification.

Director Williams explained that all four locations will have their own equipment and individual paperwork, none of the locations will use the same equipment. The equipment will be picked up and secured until AV Tabulation on Election Day.

Ms. Adams reiterated her request for outreach cost, and she requested for breakdown of total metrics after AV commences in October.

Director Williams agreed and informed the BRE that the data for AV locations will be provided on the website. It's required pursuant to election code to be posted daily before 10am.

§ O.C.G.A 21-2-385(e):

M. on each business day the number of persons who have voted provisional ballots, the number of provisional ballots that have verified or cured and accepted for counting, and the number of provisional ballots that have been rejected.

Mr. Selby asked have the DRE used college campuses before.

Director Williams answered yes, she has a spreadsheet and overall turn-out at outreach location was good. She informed the BRE that she will forward that data.

Mr. Selby acknowledged that Flipper Temple AME was close to the Atlanta University Center (AUC) but why not put the location on a campus.

Director Williams explained that there were parking issues on Morehouse Campus and insurance discrepancy with Clark Atlanta University.

Link: 1:16:48-1:35:39

Timestamp: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D8xNbfp1oQ>

Attorney Pachuta provided an overview of Fulton County's Ethics Ordinance:

Link: Financial Disclosure Reports

Financial Disclosure Reports:

Pursuant to Section 2-79 of the Fulton County Code of Ethics, Income and Financial Reports are required annually by county elected and appointed officials, and various department heads that disclosures specific types of personal financial information, including occupation or income, assets, relationships, business associations, and any owned real property. The reports apply to:

- Members of the Board of Tax Assessors and all Property Appraisers;
- Members of the Community Zoning Board;
- Members of the Board of Zoning Appeals; and
- Members of the Board of Ethics.

Ms. Adams explained that this board was formed by the State legislature, she does not believe that the BOC can dictate completing this document.

Attorney Pachuta provided a response, but she explained that she can research more.

Mr. Selby inquired about the listed and the various positions that are held by appointed versus elected officials required to complete this form. The majority of the individuals required to submit FDRs are appointed and not elected.

Mr. Selby inquired about submission of the financial forms and what PII was subject to Open Records Request (ORR).

Attorney Pachuta explained how some of that information can be removed via the Open Records Act (ORA).

Mr. Selby mentioned being served by the National Republican Party and Georgia Republic Party at home over the weekend. He asked how they would get his address. Attorney Pachuta explained that all Georgia voter rolls are public record with some exceptions.

Mr. Selby asked about guidance behind completing a financial report.

Attorney Pachuta responded that typically it's used to identify conflicts of interest or ethical conflicts. The form may outline personnel interest you may have that impact your decisions.

Chair Allen recommended that Attorney Pachuta research the ordinance and update the board on her findings.

Ms. Adams shared that she was told that requiring every member to complete this document Financial Disclosure Form could impact citizens wanting to be on the board. She suggested that this policy be on a voluntarily form.

Ms. Adams suggested the Attorneys consider the Internal Vigilance Ruling of the SEB Board.

Mrs. Crawford reiterated that every board she has served on required the FDR.

Mr. Selby made a motion to approve the Resolution as written for the FDR.

Chair Allen explained that there is no urgency to pass this resolution because the BRE will not submit the Form until April 2027. She added to allow legal adequate time to respond to Member Adams concerns regarding authority.

Mr. Selby withdrew his motion, requested to discuss further at the next Regular Meeting, August 13th

Timestamp:1:36:18-1:58:46

Link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D8xNbfp1oQ>

Ms. Adams explained why she wanted to discuss the Reconciliation Report. This report is due 30 days after the election.

- Counting the ballots next day (money counter) not tabulating
- Process should be Noticed to and be observed by the public

- Post-election day discrepancies and rescanning ballots

Ms. Adams inquired about discrepancies with the Reconciliation report submitted for the May General Primary Election, she outlined the total of discrepancies found in the report posted. She explained from her research the percentage of discrepancies totaled 43%.

Chair Allen asked Ms. Adams to share the information that she collected regarding the reconciliation report.

Ms. Adams responded that the report can be found online.

Mr. Selby confirmed that the discrepancy percentage from the reconciliation report was less than 1% not 43% as described based on the number of ballots cast.

- Reconciliation report must be completed in 30 days

Madam Director explained that sometimes the SEB rules do not align with Georgia election code, which contradicts another procedural task.

Ms. Adams asked about the election code that refers to 60 days.

Chair Allen asked that the board review the reconciliation report at the Regular meeting, August 13th and that the board should review the updated material.

Ms. Adams asked about the ballots that were rescanned in May.

Director Williams explained that she did not have that information available, but the exact totals and locations were emailed to the BRE at the time of recanvassing.
